Corporate Office Centers' Alpharetta Center Welcomes New General Manager

Carrie Tegeder Joins Corporate Office Centers' Team

Alpharetta, GA (July 2008) – Corporate Office Centers®, one of the nation's largest executive suite operators, recently announced the addition of Carrie Tegeder as general manager at its Alpharetta location, according to Thad Pittman, president of Corporate Office Centers®.

Tegeder will oversee all aspects of sales, marketing and operations. She will also develop brand recognition and strategic relationships with local businesses, associations and commercial real estate brokers.

With more than eight years of expertise, Tegeder has held key sales and marketing positions including leasing manager at PCM Management Group and most recently, as general manager at Office Suites PLUS.

"We are thrilled to welcome Carrie to the Corporate Office Centers' team. Her extensive customer service, sales and marketing experience will keep the Alpharetta center a leader amongst executive office suites in the area," said Pittman.
